ROHITH T

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

I am Rohith T, a second-year B.E. Computer Science (IoT) student at Nandha Engineering College and an aspiring entrepreneur. With a strong interest in full-stack engineering and ethical hacking, I have developed impactful projects like DMeet, an online meeting platform that won Hackaplooza '24. I am currently exploring AI, IoT, and image recognition in my ongoing projects. Certified in Postman API Fundamentals, I am committed to creating secure and user-centric tech solutions.

ACHIEVEMENTS

Winner of Hackaplooza '24 for developing DMeet, showcasing my ability to deliver impactful solutions under competition conditions.
